

NINTH ANNUAL

2017

TURNER CEMETERY

FREE ADMISSION

HISTORY WALK

Tour Pittsburgh's Second Oldest Cemetery

3424 Beechwood Boulevard, Pittsburgh, PA 15217 (Squirrel Hill/Greenfield area)

Saturday, September 30, 2017

Cemetery opens at 10:30. Church doors open at 11:00.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

11:30: Dedication Ceremony for the Simon Girty Pennsylvania State Historical Marker, with presentations by Phillip Hoffman, author of Simon Girty, Turncoat Hero, and Dr. Charles McColleston, author of The Point of Pittsburgh

- Performance by Tamsula, Withers & Kristy, a traditional string band
- Encampment of 8th Pennsylvania Regiment military re-enactors
- Self-guided cemetery tours
- Book signing by Mr. Hoffman and Dr. McColleston
- Historical displays
- Hot soups and cool desserts sale

Come to learn about historic Turner Cemetery, which dates back to 1785. It holds the remains of the early settlers of Squirrel Hill and veterans of the first four wars fought by the United States.

Turner Cemetery is adjacent to Mary S. Brown Memorial-Ames United Methodist Church at 3424 Beechwood Boulevard, Pittsburgh, PA 15217, in the block between Brown's Hill Road and Federal Hill Street. Look for the bright red fence. Call 412-421-0701 for information.

Parking is available along Beechwood Blvd. Church meeting hall is handicap accessible. Cemetery is on a grassy slope.

THE TURNER CEMETERY HISTORY WALK IS SPONSORED BY MARY S. BROWN MEMORIAL AMES UNITED METHODIST CHURCH AND THE FRIENDS OF TURNER CEMETERY.

www.turnercemetery.org

www.brightredfence.org